We continue to see growth in the Basic Certifications like API 510, 570, and 653. The API 1169 has seen a drop in North American recertifications, but we see growth in other regions. API 1184, is our second offering in the midstream space with two exam adminstrations we are starting to see interest grow there.

*COVID-19 impact to testing began in earnest March through May 2020. During that period, we had over 2,000 displaced testers rescheduled to later dates that are reflected in the August 2020 and later windows. In the later 2021 windows we start to see scheduling numbers return to normal and that follows into 2023. 2023 exams are only being reported against current scheduling through March 2023.
